

Presente de ser en el plural
Talking about more than one

Nombre:
Fecha:

You have already learned the singular forms of the verb “ser.” Review the singular form and translate both, singular and plural forms. (p.54)

1. To be (s) Ser (s) I am _____ You are _____ He is _____ She is _____	2. To be (p) Ser (p) We are _____ You all are _____ They are (m) _____ They are (f) _____
--	---

3. Carefully, read section # 3 on p. 54 and then answer the following questions.

- What form do you use to talk about yourself and another person? _____
- How many forms does the nosotros form have? _____
What are they? _____ and _____.
- True or false?
- When talking about two or more males and females you use the “ellos” form. _____
- If you are talking about three girls and one boy you can refer to them as “ellas” ? _____
- If you are talking to more than one person you use _____. The abbreviation for ustedes is _____.
- What personal pronoun would you use to talk about these people?
Marta: _____
Julio y yo: _____
Pedro: _____
- What personal pronoun would you use to talk to these people?
Jorge: _____
Jorge y Carlos: _____
Marta: _____

Práctica: Act. 19 p.56 (Write the answers in a separate sheet of paper). In pairs: act. 16, p.55 (1st sect. read conversation, 2nd sect. in writing)