

A direct object is a noun or pronoun that answers the question “who” or “what.”
If it is a pronoun, it must reflect the number and gender of the noun it replaces.

Directions: Fill in the blank with the correct pronoun.
Choose from the following:

	Singular	Plural
1 st person	me (me)	nos (us)
2 nd person	te (you)	os (you)
3 rd person	lo (him)	los (masc.)
	la (her)	las (fem.)
	lo / la (it)	los / las (them)

- I love you. _____ amo.
- They want the book (it). _____ quieren.
- You - all (familiar) want the house (it). _____ queréis.
- Pablo knows me. _____ conoce.
- I know them (Pablo and Mónica). _____ conozco.
- I have the pen (it). _____ tengo.
- You love me. _____ amas.
- You - all (formal) drink milk (it). _____ beben.
- He buys the magazines (them). _____ compra.
- They see Mónica (her). _____ ven.

vocabulary

libro = book
casa = house
pluma = pen
la leche = milk
revista = magazine

Directions: Translate the following sentences by writing the correct form of the verb.

- She believes it. (creer)
Lo _____.
- You-all (formal) understand us. (comprender) Nos _____.
- She looks at me. (mirar)
Me _____.
- I love her. (amar)
La _____.
- You (familiar) understand the lessons. (comprender) Las _____.