

GRAMÁTICA

Saying What Someone Likes to Do Using gustar + infinitive

¿RECUERDAS? p. 39 You learned to use me gusta, te gusta, and le gusta + infinitive to talk about the activities a person likes to do.

Here are more phrases to use to talk about what people like to do.

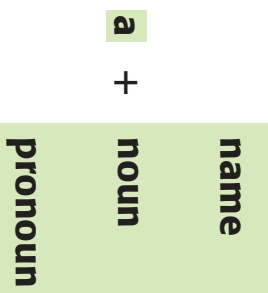

me gusta correr
te gusta correr
le gusta correr

nos gusta correr we like to run

os gusta correr you (familiar plural) like to run

les gusta correr they/you (plural) like to run

When you want to emphasize or identify the person that you are talking about, use:

A Diana le gusta ir de compras.
Diana likes to shop.

A su hermana le gusta ir de compras.
His sister likes to shop.

A ella le gusta ir de compras.
She likes to shop.

These are the pronouns that follow a.

a mí → me gusta
a ti → te gusta
a usted, él, ella → le gusta

a nosotros(as) → nos gusta
a vosotros(as) → os gusta
a ustedes, ellos(as) → les gusta